Welcome to TEDxLukelyBrook

TEDxLukelyBrook brings people together to be inspired by sharing ideas worth spreading from the Isle of Wight to the world. Our speakers deliver powerful TEDtalks to improve lives and enlighten us with a deeper understanding of how people think, feel and act. Take your seat and be part of our theatre audience, global live stream and an event not to forget.

Our Conversation Area is a place to spark conversation, meet the speakers to discuss their talks, network with fellow delegates and soak up the atmosphere of TEDxLukelyBrook. Alongside this is our Watch Party, bringing together 200 young entrepreneurs and future community champions.

Look out for our Telepresence Robot, buy official merchandise, engage with our Watch Party through the virtual tunnel, have your photo taken on the round red carpet and hear our event theme 'If not now, when?' sung live.

About TEDx

In the spirit of ideas worth spreading, TEDx is a program of local, self-organized events that bring people together to share a TED-like experience. At a TEDx event, TED Talks video and live speakers combine to spark deep discussion and connection. These local, self-organized events are branded TEDx, where x = independently organized TED event.

Our Speakers

James Green 'If you kill time, you murder success'

Time is finite, we get one shot. Procrastination is the biggest killer of success. The key to success is urgency and the ability to take action now, not tomorrow. But how?

Mart Drake Knight 'This Economy is a Playground. What are the rules?'

Can one person redesign the economy and make sustainability reality?

Tina Jennings 'A move from the Urban Jungle'

Is humanity going to take the experience and opportunity brought about by Covid 19 and REALLY make a stand to move from today's urban jungle, unlocking the true power of people and revolutionise the future of work, or not?

Josh Barry 'Redefining Disability'

Josh shares his unique perception of disability which may not be what you think and offers insight into his successes.

Kim Davis 'How The Arts can help you achieve anything'

We all love music, theatre, dance, art, and film, but what if you could harness the power of The Arts to transform your dreams into reality?

Dr. Adrian Gill 'The Future of Energy'

How renewable energy will change the way we go about daily life.

Will Perry 'Challenges of a Paralympian'

The challenges of being a Paralympian are tough, but can be much harder away from the pool and competition – but why?

Tim Sissons 'Be on a 10'

Explore how to approach every day with a positive mind-set and the ability to inspire yourself and others. Making you more aware of your positive attributes and helping you excel in your personal and professional life.

Clive Loseby 'Blind people do not use the Internet. How can they? They cannot see the screen'

Most websites fail to meet the needs of people with disabilities, but it doesn't need to be that way if you make it possible for them to do so!

Gina London 'The Myth of Authenticity'

Discover why the most valued attribute of a leader is also one of the most misunderstood. Gina London busts the myth and shares three key areas you should embrace to improve positive impact, leaving you inspired and ready for the challenges that lie ahead.

Event Supporters:

A Word from Our Main Sponsor

WightFibre is delighted to support the TEDxLukelyBrook event. WightFibre's new full-fibre network provides the Isle of Wight with world class digital connectivity second to none, a network future-proof for decades to come. Just as the smooth flow of water was critical to the businesses founded on and around the original Lukely Brook, the smooth flow of data is essential to connect people, share ideas and spread knowledge – at events like this. WightFibre is delighted to help the data flow. If not now, when?

About TED^xLukelyBrook

x = independently organized TED event

TEDxLukelyBrook reflects the past, present and future. Where through the waters of Lukely Brook, the Isle of Wight connects to the world. The brook, which rises in the Bowcombe valley has powered the islands mills from as early as Roman times, passing under the main venue to join the River Medina, past the Watch Party and out into the Solent to travel the world. The theme of TEDxLukelyBrook is 'If not now, when?' A motivational call to action, to prompt those attending and 'touched' by this TEDx event to take positive action, on aspects of their business and personal life that they inevitably know they will have to undertake at some time, but so often delay or procrastinate upon.

Our Watch Party

Taking place simultaneously at the adjacent Riverside Centre, our Watch Party brings together up to 200 young entrepreneurs and community champions of the future. All gathered in a dedicated event to watch our speakers through the live stream and experience TEDxLukelyBrook as it happens. Our speakers will be visiting the Watch Party through the day to discuss their talks, posing questions and expand on our theme of 'If not now, when?'. Unleashing fresh ideas and inspiring champions in the making and tomorrows community and business leaders. We also have TEDxLukelyBrook Reporting Teams with schools writing their reports on the event for publication, making this an event to remember for everyone who takes their place at our Watch Party.

Our theme 'If not now, when?' sung live by singer songwriter Beth Brookfield

Beth Brookfield is a 19-year-old singer songwriter from the Isle of Wight, whose music is a perfect blend of hooky indie pop paired with dreamy slide guitar. Releasing her debut single 'The Journey' in November 2020 at just 17 years old. She made her UK Festival debut at The Isle of Wight Festival in 2021, playing four different sets over the weekend. Beth is currently studying a BA (Hons) Commercial Music at Platform One College of Music, one of the UKs leading boutique commercial music colleges.
